For the grown-up

This little book is a place for your child to say what they can do — in their own words. There are no wrong answers.

Read each page together. Let them fill in the blank however they want, then draw it. Little ones can tell you the words and you can write them down. The goal is simple:

let them hear themselves say “I can.”

When you're done, we'd love to see it.

I can . . .

Write one thing you can do.

Draw it here

I can also . . .

Another thing you're good at!

Draw it here

I am . . .

Say something true about YOU.

Draw it here

This was hard . . .

but I didn't stop. I kept going. And now I can do it!

Draw you doing the hard thing

Being brave means . . .

Titan says: scared, but you do it anyway.

Draw a time you were brave

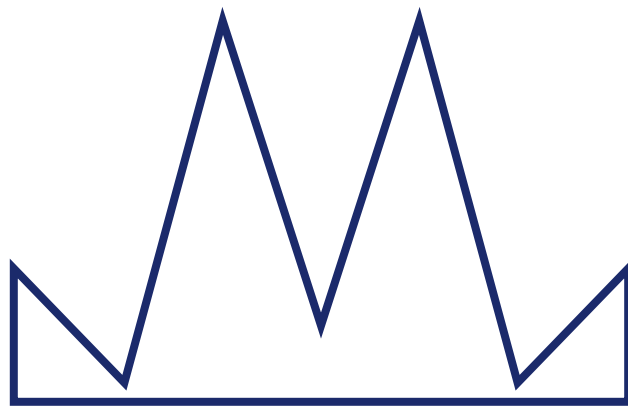

When I grow up, I could be . . .

Dream as big as you want.

Draw the future you

(or a young queen!) Color your crown.
